Central Lead Up for Grabs

Battling for the Torrance Central Little League lead, the Giants and Dodgers meet today. The Giants, winners of two contests the past week, have suffered only two defeats. The Dodgers have been knocked-off three times.

Behind a 15 strikeout performance by Mark Hornbeck, the Giants took a 6-0 nod from the Cards. Hornbeck hurled only five frames with Brian Strobidge taking over in the final stanza.

KURT MAYO and Hornbeck hit home runs for the winners. Strobidge came back to take a win of his own against the Cards, throwing a one-hitter as the Giants romped to a 16-0 victory. Danny Miller connected for the circuit in the Giant win.

KEEPINK PACE, the Dodgers took a pair of wins over the Cubs. Mike Crandall, winning pitcher, aided his cause with a home run in the Dodgers' 4-1 win.

Later, the Dodgers notched a 5-0 decision as Bob Bachman chalked up the win. Bart Johnson hit a four-bagger for the "Bums."

IN THE ONLY other games on tap, the Yanks took two wins from the Braves. In the first contest, the Yanks took a 3-1 extra-inning victory.

Greg Waters went the first six innings on the hill for the Yanks with Don Lucarelli his opponent. Bobby Garcia came in with a 1-1 tie in the seventh and took the win as Mike Coast wound up with the loss.

BOBBY FERNLEY went 3 for 4 for the Yanks. Waters managed to take the nod in the second game as the Yanks compiled a 7-2 winning margin. Mike Barber of the Yanks slammed a home run.

ON WEDNESDAY, before the Dodger-Braves game, there will be a special recognition ceremony. The All-Star team and alternates will be announced and pins presented.

The graduating 12-year-old boys will also be presented with pins. The ceremony begins at noon. Game time will be an hour later.
